WISH HER LUCK.

Miss Camille L. Detert, whose services at Camp Taylor won high commendation and who was indefatigable in her work for the Louisville Catholic War Council and the Visitation home building fund campaign, left that week tomorrow to accept a position in Washington. Miss Detert became popular with all classes at the Catholic War Council headquarters here, and all wish her the best of luck in her wider sphere of usefulness.

VINCENTIANS.

Tomorrow afternoon the various conferences of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will hold their quarterly general meeting at the Knights of Columbus Hall, and all members who can are urged to attend. Reports on the work for the first quarter of the year will be read and new members received into the society. The address will be delivered by Rev. Father William Feibel, O. M. C., pastor of St. Peter's church tomorrow morning the different conferences will receive holy communion in a body at their respective churches.

DELIGHTED AUDIENCES.

Two large and delighted audiences witnessed the presentation of the comic opera, "The Lass of Limerick Town," at St. Boniface Hall, on Tuesday and Thursday nights. Every member of the company scored, and it is expected that the hall will be taxed to its capacity when the excellent opera is given its final production tomorrow night. Those taking part are the members of St. Boniface choir, while the music will be by the St. Boniface orchestra, all under the direction of Prof. Anthony Mohlen-graft.

BARDSTOWN.

CHAPLAIN BARRETT.

At Pueblo, Col., Rev. Regis Barrett, O. S. B., is now at the St. Leander Priory, where he celebrated the late mass on Palm Sunday. Father Regis was discharged as a Major from Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky. The rank of Major was given to him in recognition of his services at Camp Taylor. During the flu epidemic last year Father Regis made himself invaluable at the camp by his resourcefulness and zeal and energy, and endeared himself to the men and the officers alike. Father Regis will remain at the priory for the present and assist Very Rev. Walter Stehle, rector.

TRINITY BOWLERS.

The annual spring reunion of Trinity Y. M. C. bowlers will be held in the green room of the Tyler Hotel next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Prizes for the 1918-1920 winners in the Trinity League will be awarded. The following will respond to toasts: John L. Sullivan, "How to Win a Pennant;" Lee Schuster, "Track Was This Muddy;" Ernest Luvish, "How to Win Games Without Opposition;" George Litterer, "My Speed Compared to Timmel's;" Harry J. Hennessy, "Cussin' Will Not Help;" Pete Bauscher, "How to Bull 'Em Down;" Capt. Al F. Martin will act as toastmaster and Adam Schneider will head the reception committee.

COMPLY WITH RULING.

Many Catholic prelates of the United States will visit Rome this year to pay their respects to the Pope and to comply with a recent ruling of the church directing the prelates to visit the Holy See at least once in five years. In view of the present position of America in the world affairs it is likely that the visits of the American prelates to Europe will have a great bearing on steps toward safeguarding international peace.

BENEDICT AND IRELAND.

According to a cable dispatch from Rome, which is credited to the Associated Press, Pope Benedict will deliver in May a pronouncement on the Irish question in its political and religious aspects. The pronouncement will be made on the occasion of the canonization of Oliver Plunkett, the seventeenth century Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of Ireland. All the Irish Bishops will journey to Rome for the canonization, and pilgrims also are expected from America and European countries.

GOES TO RESIST.

The death of Bernard Klee, 705 East Ninth street, took place from St. Mary's parish, of New Albany, an old and respected resident. Besides his widow he is survived by four sons and three daughters. They are Joseph, Bernard, John and Charles Klee; Mrs. Emily Dieckman and Miss Edna Klee, of New Albany, and Mrs. Margaret Constantine, of Jeffersonville. His funeral will be held tomorrow morning with regular high mass, his church being filled with friends and relatives.

IRISH GIRLS FIRST.

The Associated Press sends out the news that more than 1,000 girls on Tuesday inaugurated what is believed will prove a great influx of immigrants from Ireland. The girls, most of whom arrived on the steamship Baltic, went to the homes of friends or relatives in New York City, and the Rev. Anthony Gilmour, of the Home of Irish Immigrant Girls, said their arrival would help relieve the shortage of domestics. Only seven girls were detained for failure to meet the immigration requirements, including the literacy test, whereas deported aliens at Ellis Island have been averaging from 3 to 5 per cent. of arrivals. Immigration authorities said many Irish girls were anxious to come to the United States, but that hitherto it had been difficult for them to obtain passports.

GREAT CLASS.

Five hundred candidates, the greatest number ever received in one class, will be initiated into the Daughters of the American Revolution at Cleveland, O., Sunday, April 25. Degree work will be in charge of Mrs. E. L. Brady, Grand Regent of Court Cleveland, and Miss Helen M. Clark, Monitor.

President, and Mrs. M. F. Atz, President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., both of New Albany, spent the first of the week in Indianapolis. While there they attended the quarterly meeting and initiation of the eleven Indianapolis divisions and were honor guests of the County Board on Sunday. While in the Hoosier capital they were given a cordial welcome and made a gratifying report of the progress of their order in Southern Indiana.

TOLEDO TOMORROW.

Bill Clymer and his troublesome Columbus team depart after this afternoon's game and Roger Brennan and his rejuvenated Toledo club will be here tomorrow for a series of four games, this being the end of the Colonels' home stay. City men's team proved that they are in mid-season form, and Toledo surprised the Indianapolis fans by its strength.

The unknown strength shown has caused many of the dopesters to begin revising their predictions, and the race in the Association this year ought to be a corker. As for our Colonels, they look fit and ready, the only weak feature being the hitting strength of our outfielders, Meeks and Acosta, and local fans would like to see Meeks given a thorough workout. Kiro, Betts, Haney, Meyers and Wortman should be consistent batters this season, the little shortstop coming back strong, and if we were Cap Neal we would try Lamar or any other heavy hitting outfielder in Acosta's place to give Meeks full opportunity to make good.
